Albuquerque Association of Educational Retirees

The Executive Board of the Albuquerque Association of Educational Retirees would like to invite you to join our organization. We are a local unit of the New Mexico Association of Educational Retirees.

Together our mission is to promote legislation, share information, lobby for benefits such as Cost of Living Adjustments and favorable insurance benefits, and to maintain an effective local organization.

We meet on the second (2nd) Tuesday of each month August through May. Our meetings include a program which consists of entertainers and speakers who bring members up-to-date on proposed legislation, health and personal safety issues.

To qualify for membership if you are at least fifty (50) years of age, are currently or formerly employed in any capacity in the nation's schools, public, private or parochial, college or universities.

Spouses are also welcome.

Please Join Us Today!

Our meetings are usually held at:
